Question No. 200

Shall the Centennial Municipal Code of Ordinances be amended by adding an appropriately numbered section, to read in full as follows:

Human relations division; deductions allowable from payroll compensation. No payroll deduction shall be taken from the payroll compensation of any employee except for deductions required by federal law; tax withholdings, judicial liens and garnishments, including court-ordered child support, domestic support and maintenance obligations and payments; deductions for employee benefits and pensions as established by law for such employee; and deductions for contributions to charities and organizations exempt from federal income tax under sec. 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Provided that, any such employee authorizing a charitable deduction shall provide written authorization consenting to such charitable deduction, at least annually. A charge may be assessed to a charitable organization that receives the benefit from the payroll deduction to offset the cost for this service.
